Blanc de Blancs Réserve, Charles de Fère – France - £11.50

A top class sparkling from just outside the Champagne border, from all-white grapes, mainly Chardonnay. Refined and fruity with apple and pear flavours and fine, small, bubbles. Not dissimilar to its illustrious neighbour.

Prosecco di Valdobbiandene Brut, Col de'Salici – Italy - £13

The famous fizz of the north east, inland from Venice. The Prosecco grape produces a delicate, and floral sparkling with great style. The ultimate aperitivo from one of the most respected growers.

Jansz Rosé nv – Australia - £13.50

From Tasmania, the home of the country's best sparklings and considered by many to be the finest fizz outside Champagne. Pale pink colour, full in soft red fruit flavours and great class. One of the most fashionable pre-dinner drinks at this time.
